BIONICLE

Look out, they're back!

On a mysterious island, six elemental heroes join forces with the Islanders to defeat a rising evil. To succeed, the heroes must claim six ancient gold masks to unlock their full fighting potential.

TAHU – Master of Fire

Tahu is hot-tempered and brave. He likes to excel and thinks of himself as the most heroic of the heroes. His forgetful nature has gotten him into trouble at times, but Tahu seems to be born under a very lucky star, and somehow always comes out on top.

ONUUA – Master of Earth

Onua is grounded and wise. He likes to spend his time alone meditating under the stars. Like an underground cave, receptive and silent. And... snoring! Though Onua rarely says a word, the other heroes have come to respect this sleepy giant. They know that when he speaks, his crude voice carries guidance and wisdom.

LEWA – Master of Jungle

Lewa is a true daredevil, a fast-talking and witty adventurer whose foolhardy manners have often gotten him into trouble. His rebel approach is a double-edged sword that the other heroes both love and hate. On one hand, Lewa finds new ways, on the other these ways sometimes lead to new trouble!

KOPAKA – Master of Ice

Kopaka is noble and reserved. Upholding his own strict moral code he strives to be perfect and always "do the right thing". A fact that often makes him appear formal and even cold in the eyes of others. Luckily Kopaka's clumsiness and his not too solid sense of direction help the other heroes remember that, after all, Kopaka is just a Toa like them.

GALI – Master of Water

Gali is friendly and peaceful. But when the situation calls for it, she can be as fierce as a raging ocean. She finds injustice intolerable and always goes out of her way to help the ones who need it. Gali's mellow ways have made her the most liked among the heroes. She is generous, a good listener and friend. Only one little thing: she just can't seem to tell a joke right!

POHATU – Master of Stone

Pohatu is unyielding and fearless. Renowned for his unbreakable stamina, he is arguably the toughest of all the heroes. With firm resolution and Pohatu strides forward as a fearless vanguard leading the way of the heroes. Well almost fearless. Pohatu does NOT like the dark.
